How can you secure your residence, especially after a divorce, separation, or in cases of violence? What should you consider when applying for citizenship for yourself and your children or when applying for family reunification? This consultation provides answers to your questions and practical information on relevant legal topics.

The free online group consultations provide comprehensive information on important everyday topics. Our consultants offer valuable guidance, focusing primarily on the questions brought by you and other participants.

Moderation:

Anne Thyr, cultural and social anthropologist and counsellor at FIBEL
